

Learn.
Connect.
Network.

glam alumni network

Avril Henry and Associates are delighted to host the launch of Jennifer Wittwer's new book "Against the Wind" at 9:00am to celebrate

International Women's Day

Introducing Author and GLAM Ambassador Jennifer Wittwer

A military veteran, with 38 years' experience in organizational change, cultural reform, and contemporary gender-responsive strategies, Jennifer supports global efforts to ensure more effective and sustainable peace and security through the inclusion of women at all levels.

Her more recent roles in the Australian Defence Force included Navy Women's Strategic Adviser, Gender Adviser to NATO in Afghanistan, Director National Action Plan on Women, Peace and Security, and a policy specialist on peacekeeping and sexual exploitation and abuse with UN Women in New York.

GLAM Alumni Seminar

(Commencing at 11:00am)

CANBERRA

March

4

9:00-5:00

Breaking Down Generational Barriers @ Work

Each generation in the workplace has different expectations of the organisation, career management and their leaders, and are motivated by different things. Understanding these differences and harnessing the uniqueness of each generation enables managers and leaders to motivate and manage each generation for maximum employee engagement.

And generation Z has arrived at work!

Cost per attendee = $990 including GST. Meals Included.
Hosted at The Boathouse, Barton, Canberra

AHAA! will make a donation to thank Jennifer to Lou's Place from this Alumni Seminar.

A Safe Place for Women